The 8th House deals sudden actions, fear, longevity etc while the 12th house indicates sleep, loss, etc.,

5. Inference

You will tend to work very hard during this period. You will get room to express your new ideas and will get appreciation from your higher ups. This opportunity will help you to prove yourself and your skill. Change of environment or change of place is likely with respect to your job. During September to December you may be invited to coach or train few colleagues or employees which will help you to establish your importance in the organization.

There would be good business opportunities related to spirituality. You will be able to touch the lives of many people through your guidance through this business opportunity. Getting involved in such activities will get lots of blessings for you and good karma as well.

On the flip side, you may have some health discomforts like pain or numbness in your limbs etc. that will restrict you from giving your best. This will leave you unhappy and could create small disruptions in your work environment. Disturbance in the domestic environment could also curtail your productivity.

Refrain yourself from unwanted gossips at work place as the people you trust could possibly betray you. This is the time you have to maintain more cordial relationship with everybody. Teaching and learning will be more in this period which will help you to improve your skills related to your professions.
