1. Purpose:

Parenting is an art. Being in a crucially responsible position to mould the behaviour and character of their children so that they grow up as wonderful human beings is definitely a big task for the parents. This report explains about how the Shadow planets influence the mind of your child, their attitude, emotions and behavioural patterns.

The purpose of this report is thus to provide a clear understanding of how you would be relating to your child, specifically, in the Rahu-Ketu Transit period, and also give you tips and suggestions as to how to handle them so that your parent-child relationship is intact. This transit period extends from 30th January 2016 to 18th August 2017.

- Rahu will transit from his current position in Virgo to Leo.
- Ketu will move from his current position in Pisces to Aquarius.

3. Analysis

Scorpio and Gemini are your Ascendant Sign and Moon sign respectively.

Your Child has Scorpio as Ascendant and Leo as Moon Sign.

Transit Rahu & Ketu positions in your birth chart:

For both of you, the Transiting Rahu will be placed in the 10th House from your Ascendant Scorpio, since both of you have the same Ascendant. The 10th House is the House of profession and basically deals with all the activities one does for a living. From your Moon Sign, the transit Rahu places himself in the 3rd House of efforts, siblings etc.

The transiting Ketu will position himself in the 4th House from Ascendant for both of you. 4th House indicates one's mother, education etc. While from Moon Sign, he will be in 9th House for you and will also transit over your birth chart Mars. The 9th House talks about one's father, moral ethics and values, spiritual inclination, association with foreign land etc.

Transit Rahu & Ketu positions in your child's birth chart:

As mentioned above, Rahu will be in her 10th House and Ketu will be in 4th House from from the Ascendant. From the Moon Sign, for your daughter, Rahu will be transiting over her birth chart Moon itself while Ketu will be in the 7th House of relationships. Though this house primarily talks about spousal relationships, in a broader perspective, it provides inputs on how one relates with the other socially.

4. Inference

As the planet Rahu is transiting in the Moon sign of your daughter she will display very sensitive and emotional tendencies. Even for small things she could become very furious. With a wrong approach, such situations can spoil your relationship with her. So you have to handle her with more empathy and patience. You have to be more appreciative in both your words and actions. Especially being the mother of a teenager, you should be more a friend to her, so that she trusts you and is very frank with you.

You may some minor health discomfort during September and December 2016, in turn you might show your frustration on her. This could make her feel dejected.

During May to September 2016 job pressure or hectic working schedule will also bring some gap between both of you. So make it a point to spend quality time with your child and bridge the gap.

In this period she could expect more emotional and psychological support from you. By giving this you can make her achieve her accomplishments all that she wants to achieve this year.

Her spending habit will annoy you. She may even lose her belongings more probably January to March 2017. This is the right time to teach her the values for all that she has in her life, instead of blaming her for being careless or absent-minded etc.

This period you both may face little difficulty in adjusting with each other, but with your patience, understanding nature and genuine expression of your love and concern for her will help create a stronger bonding between both of you.

Find a convenient time every day to sit with her and do pranayama or simple breath watching technique, for at least 10 minutes. Breath watching is nothing but taking deep breaths with ease and observing the air flow during the inhalation and exhalation. This will help ease out your minds and will further give clarity of thought and focus. Most importantly, you should practice this to get relieved of the higher stress and mental tension that can happen to you in this period.
